Painting a Picture of Love – Author Donna Milham Releases New Inspirational Book, AT HIS FEET

[Open Press] – Author, speaker, teacher, and creative artist, Donna Milham recently released her new inspirational book, At His Feet ($14.99, Constant Hope Publishing). At His Feet is a collection of poetry and prose, which invite the reader to pioneer new places in their daily lives with their Creator God. “More than words on a page, Milham’s debut book artistically paints a picture of Unconditional Love,” says Constance Scott, Director of Constant Hope Publishing. “It is a book that will impact readers of all ages.”

Even though this is Milham’s first book, she is no novice to creative presentation through written word or otherwise. She is a well-spring of biblical revelation and worshipful artistic expression, which comes through her years of study and intimate pursuit of God. “There is a cry, deep within our spirit-man for greater silence, for the deeper places of God, for the mysteries of Heaven Above. There is still too much noise and busyness around and within,” says Milham. “At His Feet is an invitation to journey into the place of quiet and rest, found within the Heart of God, while sitting at His Feet.”

Brian Simons, author of The Passion Translation says:

“Donna Milham has a very unique and creative style of writing, which you will enjoy! Intermixed with poetry, prose, praise and the Word of God, Donna leads you into that tender exchange that takes place between the worshiper and the Worshiped, until our hearts are completely intermingled with His with no desire to turn back!”

Tracee Anne Loosle, director of Intrepid Heart Ministries says:

“At His Feet is an invitation to a lifestyle of abandoned worship and love. This call brings the reader face-to-face with Holy Love. Donna shares transparently from her heart’s journey. She has discovered the faithful and true love of God, as she has learned to lay her life down at the feet of Jesus. I believe the timeless message in her writings will touch many generations. I encourage the reader to find a quiet place and get ready to hear the sound of Love’s heartbeat as you open the pages of this book.”

Donna Milham is a Gloucester, Massachusetts resident and founder of Eagle & Dove Ministries and Judah’s Roar Church. She is called to train, equip, and release people to know God’s blueprint for their lives, and to embrace and fulfill their God-given destiny with passion and perseverance.
